

Education abroad: first steps to learning

More and more Ukrainian students want to study in Ukraine and to study in prestigious European universities. After high school, more and more graduates prefer not Ukrainian schools and European universities. Students interesting foreign culture, they want to adopt best practices, make new friends, improve language skills and explore the world.

For those who still plans to leave Ukraine and go abroad to study, there are many educational programs. For example: the Fulbright program, Erasmus and Erasmus Mundus. So take advantage of the opportunity, everyone can.

What steps need to take to study abroad

First you need to write a motivation letter to add a detailed resume, a document about complete General secondary education (preferably with excellent grades), and collect relevant documents for registration. If You haven't finished University, estimates in the record book plays navigate here an important role. Also, ask your teacher to write You a letter of recommendation. And there is only one  $&#8211$ ; to improve foreign language skills to level B1 or B2.

That provides foreign education system students

In European universities the training is carried out not by the method that we have. For example, in French high schools study more than seven subjects.

Students abroad provide an opportunity to study the subject, are encouraged to go to the library and reading rooms. No need to look for books with long lists, but get ready to perform creative tasks. In foreign universities the training is so that practice was more than theory. In addition, here and to the assessment are calmer than in our universities. With your instructor you can discuss the results of their exams. It is worth remembering that in foreign universities cheating or plagiarism is punished severely: students may be excluded from school.

Actually, another difference between the foreign universities that teachers do not need to constantly run, they are loyal to their students, always listen and help.
